CRAZY HAIR DAY

We would really appreciate some gifts we can put into our Christmas raffle, or put towards hampers.

If these could come in on/before Thursday 1st December we would really appreciate it.

The children can come in with crazy hair to. Gelled, coloured spray maybe even Christmas themed.

ABSENCE FROM PLAY-GROUP - If your child will not be attending through illness or holiday please inform Julie on 07790 744404. The general rules on sickness & diarrhoea is not to bring them back until they are clear for 48 hours. Contagious diseases such as chicken pox and impetigo would need more time to clear before returning, but if in any doubt about whether you should bring your child or not please call us and ask for advice or ask your GP.

Please remember to pack your child a change of clothes. These may be needed after messy activities. Please also check your child's bags at the end of the session to see if we have used the clothes so they can be replaced.

Please also provide enough nappies for the whole session.

Any medication should be handed to staff in a named bag.

Please remember

The church will be running a parent and toddler group every Wednesday through term times in the church, 2-3pm.

Kindly Reminder For All Packed Lunches

Please be aware that due to recent health and safety advice if your child has grapes in their packed lunch please make sure they are quartered. Unfortunately any whole grapes found in lunches will have to be removed by staff members. Please remember to make sure your child's lunch box is full of healthy food. For healthy lunch boxes ideas please go to the change4life website, they have lots of helpful ideas and tips.

Please also remember we are a 'NUT FREE' playgroup as there have been a few nutty cereal bars appearing.

Thank you for your support on these matters!

Don't forget to join our Facebook page. Inset days, emergency closures, phonic sounds of the week, plus lots of other useful Information are updated regularly on the site!
